What this curriculum gives your Sunday School

God's Little Sprout is a 100-devotion book written for kids ages 3-8. It was built for the real five-minute bedtime window at home — but Sunday School directors quickly noticed the same structure works beautifully for K-3rd grade classrooms.

Every devotion has the same four beats: story · verse · prayer · question. Your volunteer opens the book and teaches. No prep. No lesson plan writing. No supplemental workbooks required.

How it works in a Sunday School morning

- Minutes 0-2 · Read the devotion aloud. One volunteer, one book, calm attention.
- Minutes 2-3 · Read the Bible verse together. NIV (English) is designed for young readers — kids can echo it back.
- Minutes 3-4 · Pray the little prayer. Two lines the whole class can say together.
- Minutes 4-15 · Talk about it. The open-ended question opens 10-15 minutes of real conversation. That's your lesson.

What one lesson looks like

Below is Devotion #1 as it appears in the book — followed by teaching notes for a Sunday School volunteer.

SECTION 1 · DEVO 1 OF 100

You Were Not an Accident

Sometimes big people ask kids, "Was that on purpose?" when something spills. It's a funny question, right? Well, guess what — when God made you, it was totally on purpose. He thought of you before your mama and papa even met. He picked your eyes, your laugh, your favorite color before you were born. You were never a surprise to God. You were His plan.

"You created the deepest parts of my being. You put me together inside my mother's body. How you made me is amazing and wonderful."

— Psalm 139:13-14 (NIRV)

*Papa God, thank You for thinking of me.
Help me remember I was made on purpose.
Amen.*

Talk about it: What's one thing about you that only you have?

Teaching notes for the Sunday School volunteer

READ-ALoud TIME 3-4 minutes for the story + verse + prayer.

DISCUSSION PROMPTS Start with the printed question. If the class is quiet, follow up with: (1) "What's something your family always says you're good at?" (2) "Do you think God knows your favorite food? Why?" (3) "Draw one thing about you that no one else has."

ACTIVITY IDEA (5-10 MIN)

"Made on purpose" self-portrait. Give each kid paper + crayons. Ask them to draw themselves and add one detail God gave them (freckles, laugh, favorite thing). Post on the classroom wall for the whole 10-week series.
