HI, MAMA · READ ME FIRST

Faith fits between bath and bedtime.

You clicked. You downloaded. That tells me something already — you want to plant something good in your child's heart, and you're brave enough to try.

These 3 devotionals are a taste of the full book. They're built for the world you actually live in: pajamas half on, toothpaste still on the chin, one kid asking for water, the other for a snack.

Each one takes under 5 minutes. A little story. A real Bible verse (NIRV / WEB translations, kid-friendly). A 2-line prayer you can whisper together. And one question — because the conversation is where the seed actually gets planted.

You don't need a Bible seminary degree. You don't need a candle. You don't need a perfectly quiet moment. You need this PDF and 5 minutes.

Try one tonight. See what happens. If you love it, the full 365-day book is waiting for you on the last pages of this PDF.

May God meet you in these tiny minutes.

— Ana Clara

DEVOTIONAL 1 OF 3 · DAY 1

You Were Not an Accident

You Were Not an Accident

Based on Psalm 139:13-14 (NirV)

Sometimes big people ask kids, "Was that on purpose?" when something spills. It's a funny question, right? Well, guess what — when God made you, it was totally on purpose. He thought of you before your mama and papa even met. He picked your eyes, your laugh, your favorite color before you were born. You were never a surprise to God. You were His plan.

"You created the deepest parts of my being. You put me together inside my mother's body. How you made me is amazing and wonderful."

— Psalm 139:13-14 (NirV)

PRAYER

Papa God, thank You for thinking of me.
Help me remember I was made on purpose. Amen.

TALK ABOUT IT

What's one thing about you that only you have?

DEVOTIONAL 2 OF 3 · DAY 22

Jesus Called the Kids

Jesus Called the Kids

Based on Mark 10:14 (NIRV)

One day, moms and dads brought their little ones to see Jesus. But Jesus' helpers said, "Not now! Jesus is busy!" Then Jesus stopped everything. He looked at the helpers and said, "Let the children come to me! Don't stop them!" Then He picked up the kids, put His hand on their heads, and blessed them one by one. Jesus never thinks kids are in the way. He thinks kids are the point.

"Let the little children come to me. Don't keep them away. God's kingdom belongs to people like them."

— Mark 10:14 (NIRV)

PRAYER

Jesus, thank You for wanting me close.
I run to You today. Amen.

TALK ABOUT IT

If you could sit on Jesus' lap right now, what would you say to Him?

DEVOTIONAL 3 OF 3 • DAY 100

You Are a Sprout of God

You Are a Sprout of God

Based on Isaiah 61:3 (NirV)

Do you know what a sprout is? It's a tiny green plant that just started growing. It's small. It's fresh. It's full of life you can't see yet. That's you. God planted a little seed of Himself inside you — of love, of courage, of joy — and every day it grows a bit more. You won't see it all today. You won't see it all tomorrow. But one day you'll look back and go, "Wow. God really was growing me the whole time." You are His sprout. And He is so proud.

"They will be called mighty oaks. The Lord will plant them in the land to show his glory."

— Isaiah 61:3 (NirV)

PRAYER

God, thank You for growing me.
Keep planting good things inside me. Amen.

TALK ABOUT IT

What's one thing that has grown in your heart this year?

THE MAMA BEHIND THE BOOK

Ana Clara Ribeiro

AUTHOR · CHRISTIAN MAMA · SPROUT PLANTER

Ana Clara is a Brazilian mama of two, a writer, and a lifelong Christian who couldn't find a devotional that fit her actual life — the messy, tender, five-minute kind. So she wrote one.

God's Little Sprout is her love letter to mamas who love Jesus and also love their coffee still warm. Every devotional in the collection was tested on real kids, at real bedtimes, in real pajamas.

"Faith doesn't need production. It needs presence. And 5 minutes is enough — every single night."
